Paloma and the Red Carpet

Carme Lemniscates

When Paloma arrives at the big building with so many other children living there, she stays silent and watches. But soon the cozy red carpet beckons—a place for her to draw and make friends, learn the language and learn to read. More change looms, however, and the children learn they'll have to leave their beloved carpet behind, so Paloma and her friends get creative and imagine a fitting farewell for their magic carpet. This is a touching story of refuge, change, and friendship from the talented author/illustrator Carme Lemniscates.

Carme Lemniscates is an author, illustrator, and designer of children's books. She finds her inspiration in nature and mythology, and seeks to create books that grow a child's love and respect for this wonderful planet we share. Her goal is to create content that helps children navigate the realities of our world and better understand themselves and others. She lives in Barcelona, Spain.

Salamander Song

Ginny Neil, Charli Vince

Salamanders and children alike hear the rhythms and song of the seasons as winter gives way to spring. Salamanders begin to squirm and stretch in the early spring sun, while the children and their teacher plan. They meet on a night of salamander rain (the first warm rain of spring), when the children and their teacher work to help the salamanders cross a busy road to the vernal pool on the other side. This lyrical, parallel narrative story reinforces the idea that kids can make a big difference. The author's note includes information about amphibian migrations and descriptions of citizen science activities that kids can participate in to help keep the world wild and beautiful.

Ginny Neil is happiest when she has paint under her fingernails, a pencil in her hand, or mud between her toes. Her creative mind has led to awards in the classroom and as a picture book author/illustrator. She writes for both children and adults. Her picture book The Glorious Forest that Fire Built was then winner of both the Blueberry Honor Book Award and the Eureka Honor Book Award. Ginny lives in Virginia.

Charli Vince is an illustrator and writer working (and raiding vintage shops) in the heart of Norwich, United Kingdom.

Willy and Stone Fox

Robert Tate Miller, Nicole Neidhardt

Willy and Stone Fox is the thrilling sequel to the bestselling Stone Fox. It has been two years since Willy competed in that fateful National Dogsled Race. Two years since he lost his dog, Searchlight. Two years since Stone Fox stood up and made sure Willy won the race, Willy carrying Searchlight over the finish line while Stone Fox held the other racers at bay. And now, Stone Fox needs Willy's help to save his land and his family. But can Willy race again? And without Searchlight?

Robert Tate Miller was a talented author and screenwriter, as well as a faculty member at the Berkeley Hall School in Los Angeles, California. He had lived in North Carolina, Georgia, California, and Massachusetts. Robert passed away in 2023, shortly after writing Willy and Stone Fox.

Nicole Neidhardt is Diné (Navajo) of Kiiyaa'áanii clan. She grew up and now lives in Santa Fe, New Mexico, on Tewa territory. She has a Master of Fine Arts and works in a variety of media, including book illustration, mylar stenciling, installation, and mural painting and design.
